FORT RIDGELY AND SOUTH PASS WAGON ROAD.

REPORT

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR,

IN COMPLIANCE WITH

Act of March, 1861, making appropriations for the army, communicating results of examination into the accounts of the late superintendent of the Fort Ridgely and South Pass wagon road.

JANUARY 24, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
January 22, 1862.

SIR: The 2d section of the army appropriation act approved March 2, 1861, provides "that the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to audit and state the accounts of the late superintendent of the Fort Ridgely and South Pass wagon road, up to the time when he was relieved from the care of the public property in his possession, allowing him all such sums as, in the opinion of the Secretary, may be fair, reasonable, and just, and charging him with all such sums as, in his opinion, he ought to be charged with, and report the same to Congress."

In obedience to the instructions of Congress contained in the foregoing enactment, I have examined the accounts of William H. Nobles, late superintendent of the Fort Ridgely and South Pass wagon road, and have the honor to submit the following report:

Congress, by a law approved July 22, 1856, appropriated fifty thousand dollars "for the construction of a road from Fort Ridgely, in the Territory of Minnesota, to the South Pass of the Rocky mountains, in the Territory of Nebraska; the said road to be constructed under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, pursuant to contracts to be made by him."

On the 18th September, 1856, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs addressed a letter to William H. Nobles, informing him that the Secretary of the Interior had confided the execution of the law to the Indian Bureau, and that, with the approbation of the Secretary, he had been appointed superintendent of the work. Instructions were then given to Nobles to proceed and organize a party, and commence the prosecution of the work. Under this appointment, Nobles prosecuted the work until the winter weather compelled him to suspend operations. His accounts were forwarded to the department, and appear to have been settled.

On the 25th April, 1857, the Secretary of the Interior wrote to Nobles, informing him that he had been reappointed superintendent of the Fort Ridgely and South Pass wagon road, and instructed him to commence active operations immediately. He was also instructed to purchase, between Chicago, Illinois, and Fort Ridgely, such supplies, in addition to those on hand, as might be necessary for use upon the expedition under his charge, the accounts for which, in triplicate, properly certified by him, should be forwarded to the department.

Nobles organized his party at St. Paul, Minnesota, very soon after his appointment, but the expedition did not move until June 18. Considerable correspondence occurred between the superintendent and the department upon the causes of the delay, exhibiting much feeling on both sides, and which, doubtless, contributed to the difficulties which attended the closing of the commission.

A Mr. Hubbell was appointed a disbursing agent for the expedition, and directed to pay all claims contracted for the work. Very soon after his appointment the disbursing agent resigned, when the superintendent made an arrangement with a banker at St. Paul to cash his drafts for the expenses of the outfit. This arrangement was objected to by the department, and on the 25th May, 1857, a Mr. Gorin was appointed disbursing agent, and directed to execute a bond, and report to Colonel Nobles, the superintendent. He was also informed that, upon the execution of his bond, the sum of $15,000 would be placed to his credit with the assistant treasurer of the United States at New York.

June 11 the superintendent wrote to the department that Gorin, the disbursing agent, had arrived at St. Paul, but was destitute of funds, and complained that the expedition had already been delayed a month for want of funds, while the expenses amounted to two hundred and fifty dollars per day.

About this time Senator Rice and the United States marshal for the district of Minnesota wrote to the department, complaining of the delay of the expedition, and stating that neither the superintendent nor the disbursing agent were provided with funds, and that purchases of supplies for the expedition had to be made on credit.

The Secretary replied to the marshal that the superintendent was not authorized to purchase on credit, and that if any officer acting under the department should attempt to conduct his operations upon credit he would be reported to the President for removal.

As the Secretary had instructed the superintendent, on the 25th of April, to purchase his supplies and forward the accounts to the department, and as he had been furnished with no funds from which payments for the necessary purchases could be made, it is difficult to perceive how the orders of the department could be complied with in the purchase of supplies, except by the use of the credit of the government.

As before stated, Mr. Gorin, the disbursing agent, was informed on the 25th May that $15,000 would be placed to his credit in New York. Relying upon this assurance, he drew upon the assistant treasurer in New York for $15,000. In the meantime it appears that the Secretary had changed his views as to the amount proper to be placed to the credit of the disbursing agent, and deposited only the sum of $12,000. The draft of the disbursing agent was consequently dishonored. This occasioned still further delay, and, as a consequence, the superintendent was unable to move forward with his party until the 18th of June.

It will be seen from this statement of facts that nearly two months elapsed from the date of Colonel Nobles's appointment until his party moved for the performance of the duty assigned to them. A considerable portion of the appropriation was lost by the expenses of a large force paid and subsisted by the government while they were idle. The expense of the party was stated by the superintendent to be $250 per day. This unnecessary expense might have been avoided if the department had promptly furnished the means to pay the expenses of the outfit and place the party in the field for active operations. As the department had no right to expect the superintendent to advance the means necessary to defray the expenses of the expedition, no just cause of complaint against him existed on account of the delay.

Colonel Nobles, having at length moved with his party, continued his operations, and, so far as appears from the records of this department, in a satisfactory manner, until the 20th October, when he was superseded. On that date William McAboy was appointed to succeed Colonel Nobles as superintendent. Colonel Nobles was not informed of his removal until ten days after McAboy was appointed. On the 30th October he was informed that his services were no longer required, and he was directed to turn over all the property to Mr. McAboy, and to forward his accounts to the department.

It appears that Mr. McAboy never assumed the duties of superintendent, and Colonel Nobles was requested by a letter of December 14 to remain in charge of the public property until he heard from McAboy or from the department. On the 3d February, 1858, Mr. McAboy was informed by the department that the delay which had occurred in the transmission of his appointment had caused a failure of the end proposed, and his appointment was therefore withdrawn. On the 4th of the same month Colonel Nobles was authorized to resume the duties of superintendent, and was directed to settle the business of the expedition, and to reduce his force to an amount sufficient to protect the property of the government in his charge.

After this period nothing was done in the prosecution of the work upon the road.

On the 17th June, 1858, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs was instructed by the department to direct Messrs. Cullen and Mix, superintendent and agent of Indian affairs, to co-operate as early as possible with Colonel Nobles in appraising the public property in Nobles's possession. On the same day similar instructions were given to Colonel Nobles, and he was directed, when the property was appraised, to deliver it, except the surveying and mathematical instruments, to Superintendent Cullen, for the use of the Indians. He was also informed that his duties as superintendent would cease from the date of Mr. Cullen's receipt to him for the property.

On the 17th August Colonel Nobles wrote to the department that the instructions did not reach him until the 13th August, and that on the 9th August Superintendent Cullen and Agent Mix visited his camp on the Cottonwood for the purpose of making a disposition of the property in his charge, in accordance with instructions to them from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that he had declined to act with them in appraising the property, because he had then received no instructions from the department, and he declined to deliver to them the possession of the property.

In the same letter he tendered his resignation, and further added: "From my first appointment, up to the present time, I have been obliged to make the purchases for, and conduct the operations upon, this road upon my own personal responsibility. The action of the department upon my accounts (whether intentional or not) has involved me seriously, and brought upon me great pecuniary loss. I am satisfied that I shall suffer to a still greater extent if I turn over the property in my possession, as directed, before my accounts have been adjusted and paid by the department. I therefore decline to comply with the instructions of the department in this particular until my accounts as a government officer have been satisfactorily arranged."

After some further correspondence between the department and Colonel Nobles, the Secretary requested the Solicitor of the Treasury to take the necessary steps to protect the interest of the United States.

Under instructions from the Solicitor, an action of trover was brought in the district court of the United States in Minnesota against Colonel Nobles for the property in his possession, which resulted in a judgment against the defendant on the 7th June, 1860, for $3,446 and costs, taxed at $72 38. A further judgment was rendered against the defendant at the October term of the court for $219 57, with costs, taxed at $28 08.

Colonel Nobles presents a claim against the United States for $14,897 19, a large portion of which is made up of expenditures for subsistence of the men and stock under his charge, and for his services from the time the property was demanded of him until the rendition of the judgment against him.

He proposes to credit the government with the amount of the judgments obtained against him and costs, $3,766 03, which, deducted from the gross sum claimed, leaves a balance of $11,131 16, which he claims is due to him from the United States.

When Colonel Nobles presented his account and vouchers to the department for settlement all the vouchers dated subsequent to August 17, 1858, (the date of his resignation,) were rejected. Many of these items were first allowed by the officer under whose charge the accounts were placed, but were subsequently re-examined and disallowed or suspended. An examination of the vouchers will show that those numbered 1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 17, 19, 20, 27, 33, 34, 35, 38, 40, 42, 45, and 46 were all dated previous to August 17, 1858, and no reason appears why they should not have been allowed without controversy. These vouchers cover payments amounting to $1,883 45. Vouchers numbered 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 21, 22, 24, and 28, although dated subsequent to the date of Colonel Nobles's resignation, cover payments made before that time, which amount to $3,022 01. This sum, added to the amount of the vouchers dated before his resignation, makes the amount of $4,905 46, which should have been allowed him by the department, admitting as correct the assumption that he was not authorized to contract any obligations after his resignation. This sum deducted from his account, leaves $9,991 73 as the amount charged by him for services and expenditures after his resignation. Of this amount $6,088 72 is charged for his services at the rate of $3,000 per annum, which was the salary allowed to him, and $3,903 01 is charged for expenditures for subsistence and care of the stock and other property in his charge.

The property of the United States in the possession of Mr. Nobles at the date of his resignation cost $21,000. The refusal of Nobles to deliver it upon the demand of Cullen and Mix was treated by the government as a conversion, and therefore an action of trover was commenced. The measure of damages in such an action would be the value of the property converted. The United States district attorney, who tried the case, in his report to the Solicitor of the Treasury, June 20, 1861, stated that "the Nobles case in trover was tried at the last term, and judgment obtained for $3,446 and costs. The testimony introduced by him was to the effect that the property represented in his property return as having cost $21,000 had become wasted in the expedition, and necessarily so, to the amount of three-fourths, and that the remaining one-fourth had decreased in value fifty per cent."

It appears from the papers filed in the case that the most of the property was used by Colonel Nobles in the payment of debts incurred in fitting out and sustaining the expedition.

Mr. Wilson, the district attorney, in a letter to the department, dated May 8, 1861, in relation to the suits against Colonel Nobles, said: "Although judgments were obtained against him, yet, as far as I could judge, there were real equities in the matter which were not reached, and which could not be reached, owing both to the laws of evidence which the government has established for her own protection and the absence of evidence which the defendant might, perhaps, have produced had not his meagre means prevented. Though in legal effect the sale of any of the property in his charge may have amounted to a conversion, yet there was nothing in the evidence produced to show that he had done else with the proceeds than to pay the men under his employ their just dues. Indeed, it was in evidence, upon cross-examination of the witnesses of the government, that creditors of Nobles had desired him to let them have small amounts of the property in liquidation of claims against him, and that he declined, upon the ground that it was not his, and that the proceeds must go only to pay persons employed in the work of the wagon road.

"Considering the whole circumstances of the case, I think there should be a settlement with Mr. Nobles, as thus alone can the case be considered in all its bearings; and I would also respectfully express the opinion that in settlement he should be allowed for keeping the property until compelled to deliver it by the judgment of the court."

After a careful examination of the whole case, I have adopted the following conclusions, which appear to be fairly sustained by the evidence:

1st. That the delay which occurred in the starting of the expedition, and the prosecution of the work, was mainly caused by the neglect and refusal of the department to place under the control of the superintendent funds required to pay the necessary expenses.

2d. That the neglect of the department to furnish means to purchase supplies rendered it necessary for the superintendent to either use his own credit to make purchases or to abandon the effort to equip and start the expedition; and that in adopting the first alternative he subjected himself to a considerable sacrifice.

3d. That at the time the property was demanded of the superintendent by Cullen and Mix, under the instructions of the department, there was a large amount due to the employés for services, and to others for purchases which had been made, and that the superintendent could not have, then, delivered the property without encountering resistance on the part of those who held such claims.

4th. That the property in the possession of Colonel Nobles was sold by him for the best prices he could obtain, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the debts he had contracted on account of the expedition.

5th. That the extent of his liability to the government on account of the property is fixed by the amount of the judgments which were rendered against him in favor of the United States. Although, as a legal proposition, the refusal of Colonel Nobles to surrender the property upon demand might be treated as a conversion, and bar any claim, on his part, for expenses incurred in afterwards taking care of it, the peculiar circumstances of the case, in my judgment, render it "fair, reasonable, and just" that the government should not insist upon all the legal consequences which would flow from a conversion of the property.

Mr. Mix, the agent who made the demand, states, in his letter to the department, "his men threatened, in the presence of Judge Pritchette, Major Cullen, and myself, that if the property was turned over without arrangements being made to pay them, they would destroy the property before it left the place."

Whether this resistance to the delivery of the property could have been insisted upon, as a legal defence, by Colonel Nobles, it is not necessary now to inquire, as the question has been adjudicated in the suit brought against him.

It only remains for this department to state the account of Colonel Nobles with the government, under the act of Congress, upon principles which are "fair, reasonable, and just."

In the previous settlement of Colonel Nobles several items of his accounts were rejected, as follows: 6 boxes of herrings; 275 pounds tobacco; 140 pounds figs; 5 boxes raisins; 100 boxes sardines; 5 barrels mackerel, and 470 pounds dried codfish, amounting in the aggregate to $321 30. It is not denied that these articles were purchased by Colonel Nobles for the use of the men under his command, as a part of the subsistence which was furnished for them, but it was alleged that they were "not strictly necessary, but belong to that class usually denominated the luxuries of life, and consequently could not be paid out of the appropriation for the construction of a wagon road."

If the supplies proper to be furnished to men employed by the government in the construction of a road upon the frontier should be limited to such articles as are necessary to sustain life, the rejected articles might be denominated as luxuries. But as all of them are such articles as enter into the common consumption of the people of every part of the country, it is not surprising that Colonel Nobles should have supposed that the men under his command might with propriety have been occasionally indulged in their use.

As the department had furnished him with no specific instructions as to the nature of the subsistence to be furnished his men, and had not prescribed the line between "necessaries" and "luxuries," it would seem to be reasonable that the account for these articles should have been allowed. Without entering into an examination of the comparative cost of codfish and pork, it is evident that the difference in cost is not so great as to render an officer who may furnish his men with the former, as a portion of their subsistence, liable to the charge of extravagance. In my judgment, the cost of these articles should be allowed to Colonel Nobles.

When the resignation of Colonel Nobles was accepted he ceased to be an officer of the government, and had therefore no legal right to claim the salary which he had before received. If, however, the reasons presented for his refusal to surrender the property shall be regarded as sufficient to excuse him, it was his duty to take care of the property and make the best disposition of it he could.

It is to be borne in mind that he was encamped in a wild and unsettled portion of the country; that he was completely in the power of the men in his employ, to all of whom arrears of wages were due; that they declared that the property should not be removed until their claims were satisfied; that he could appeal to no law and avail himself of no judicial process for the protection of himself or the property of the government under his charge.

If the department, at the time the property was demanded, had sent an agent with funds to pay the amounts due to the men the difficulties which occurred might have been avoided.

Under the circumstances in which he was placed, I think he should be allowed for the expenditures made to take care of the property, and a reasonable compensation for his own services. With this view of the case, I will state the accounts of Colonel Nobles, as follows:

1st. He should be allowed the account heretofore disallowed for articles styled "luxuries".....	$321 30
2d. The amount of vouchers dated prior to his resignation.....	1,883 45
3d. Items for services and expenditures before his resignation, but embraced in vouchers dated subsequent to it.....	3,022 01
4th. Amount paid by him for care and subsistence of the property of the United States after his resignation.....	3,903 01
5th. Compensation for his services from the date of the demand for the property until the rendition of the judgment, at the rate of $1,500 per annum.....	2,746 25
Making a total of.....	11,876 02
He should be charged with the amounts of the judgments and costs obtained against him, amounting to.....	3,766 03
Which leaves a balance of.....	8,109 99

To this amount I think Colonel Nobles is entitled upon a "fair, reasonable, and just" settlement of his accounts. The judgments obtained against him should also be cancelled.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
CALEB B. SMITH, Secretary.

Hon. GALUSHA A. GROW, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Voucher No. 42.

ST. PAUL, September 17, 1860.

I had secured the services of two men for the prosecution of the work on the Fort Ridgely and South Pass wagon road; and as they were valuable men, I had agreed to give them high wages, but their pay was not to commence until we took the field, I agreeing to pay their board until that time. I was ordered to discontinue the work, and settled with the two men referred to by paying their board; and the bill therefor is voucher No. 42, hereunto appended. Had these men been so disposed, they could have recovered damages for violation of contract, but it was settled as above.

District of Minnesota, ss:

I, George W. Prescott, clerk of the district court of the United States for the district of Minnesota aforesaid, do certify that the foregoing is a true transcript of the judgment in the case therein entitled, of "The United States vs. William H. Nobles," rendered and recorded at the said October term of said court, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty, as the record thereof now appears in my office.

[L. S.] In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court at St. Paul, this fourth day of January, A. D. 1861.

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT, Clerk.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8, 1861.

SIR: Being desired by Colonel William H. Nobles to express in writing my opinion with regard to the matter of difference between the United States government and himself, I would say that I acted as attorney for the United States in the suits brought against him, and that although judgments were obtained against him, yet, as far as I could judge, there were real equities in the matter that were not reached, and that could not be reached, owing both to the laws of evidence which the government has established for her own protection, and the absence of evidence which the defendant perhaps might have produced had not his meagre means prevented. Though in legal effect his sale of any of the property in his charge may have amounted to a "conversion," yet there was nothing in the evidence produced to show that he had done else with the proceeds than pay the men under his employ their just dues. Indeed, it was in evidence, upon cross-examination of the witnesses of the "government," that creditors of Nobles had desired him to let them have small amounts of "the property" in liquidation of claims against him, and that he declined upon the ground that it was not his, and that the proceeds must go only to pay persons employed on the work of the "wagon road." Considering the whole circumstances of the case I should think there should be a settlement with Mr. Nobles, as thus alone can the case be considered in all its bearings. And I would also respectfully express the opinion that in settlement he should be allowed for keeping the property until compelled to deliver it by the judgment of the court. I of course mean only such property as he had in possession; the allowance for property sold to pay men being only equitably due to times of such sales.

Most respectfully, yours,

E. M. WILSON,

Late United States Attorney, Minnesota.

Hon. SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR,

Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., August 21, 1861.

SIR: Wm. H. Nobles, esq., has called upon me with the request that I would examine and explain a certain clause in the report made by Wm. J. Cullen and myself, dated August 20, 1858, as commissioners to meet him for the purpose of appraising the property belonging to the United States in the hands of the said Wm. H. Nobles, which clause reads thus: "He refused to accept his appointment as one of the board, and also to deliver over to us for appraisement the property in his hands," &c.

We first informed him of his appointment as one of the board, which he refused to accept, stating that he did not deem it his duty to accept the appointment until he had first heard from the Secretary of the Interior. After his refusal to accept we then requested him to turn over to us the property in his hands for valuation. This he also refused, and stated that he deemed himself justifiable in retaining the property until he had a settlement with the government of all his accounts.

From a conversation held with Mr. Nobles, it was apparent that he labored under heavy embarrassments, as he stated, in consequence of the department having instructed the disbursing agent that the appropriation was exhausted, and Nobles claimed that there was nearly one-half of the available funds left; he also claimed that those instructions could have been issued for no other purpose than to embarrass him. His men threatened, in the presence of Judge Pritchett, Major Cullen, and myself, that if the property was turned over without arrangements being made to pay them, they would destroy the property before it left the place, saying at the same time that if the appropriation had been exhausted, Nobles had deceived them, and would suffer the consequences.

Superintendent Nobles afterwards asked me in St. Paul if anything further had been done by the department in this case. I informed him that Major Cullen and himself had reported our action so far and asked for further instructions. No further demand was made of Colonel Nobles for the property by us, nor to my knowledge has either Cullen or myself received any further instructions in the premises.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

C. H. MIX.

Hon. CALEB B. SMITH,

Secretary of the Interior, Washington.

Wm. H. Nobles's property return.

DISALLOWANCES.

Voucher No. 5.—6 boxes herring, at $1 00	$6 00
Voucher No. 6.—275 pounds tobacco, at 30 cents	82 50
Voucher No. 6.—140 pounds figs, at 20 cents	28 00

General Superintendent Pacific Wagon Road.

[Extract.]

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE,
Minneapolis, Minnesota, June 20, 1861.

SIR : * * * * *

The Nobles case in trover was tried at the last term, and judgment obtained for $3,446 and costs. The testimony introduced by him was to the effect that the property represented in his property return as having cost $21,000 had become wasted in the expedition, and necessarily so, to the amount of three-fourths, and that the remaining one-fourth had decreased in value fifty per cent.

The small case in assumpsit I agreed with the defendant to continue, as it came on the last day, or rather in the evening of the day on which the judge wished to adjourn court, and pressing it to trial would have rendered another day's session necessary.

Most respectfully, yours,

E. M. WILSON,
United States Attorney.

JUNIUS HILLYER, Esq.,
Solicitor of the Treasury.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

Annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, as required by the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, and the act of August 26, 1842.

JANUARY 27, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, January 23, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor herewith to transmit statements prepared by the Register of the Treasury, with his letter transmitting them to this office, exhibiting an account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, and the act of August 26, 1842.

With great respect,

S. P. CHASE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. G. A. GROW,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Register's Office, January 17, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit the account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

This account contains:

1. A general account of the receipts and expenditures of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861. The pages in the margin of the credit side refer to the detailed expenditures under the specific heads of appropriation.

2. The expenditures and repayments under each head of appropriation, showing the aggregate amount paid to, and repaid by, each individual during the year.

3. Statements of the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, including the balances on July 1, 1860; the payments during the year; the several sums carried to the surplus fund; and the balances unexpended at the end of the year.

4. Statements of the balances due by, and in favor of, supervisors, collectors, and others, of the late direct tax and internal revenue.

5. Statements of the operations of the several land offices in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861.

6. Statements in relation to the customs.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

L. E. CHITTENDEN,

Register.

Hon. S. P. CHASE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

SPANISH BARK "PROVIDENCIA."

MESSAGE

FROM THE

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

TRANSMITTING

Correspondence in relation to the capture of the Spanish bark "Providencia."

JANUARY 28, 1862.—Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and ordered to printed.

To the Senate and House of Representatives :

I submit to Congress the accompanying copy of a correspondence between the Secretary of State, the Spanish minister, and the Secretary of the Navy, concerning the case of the bark "Providencia," a Spanish vessel, seized on her voyage from Havana to New York by a steamer of the United States blockading squadron, and subsequently released. I recommend the appropriation of the amount of the award of the referee.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, January 24, 1862.

[Translation.]

LEGATION OF SPAIN AT WASHINGTON,

Washington, December 14, 1861.

The undersigned, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of her Catholic Majesty, has the honor to address himself to the honorable Secretary of State of the United States, calling his attention to what occurred in the first days of November last to the Spanish merchant schooner "Providencia," Captain Don Juan Vieret, on his voyage from Havana to New York.

This vessel was boarded on the 1st November by an officer of the United States steamer "Monticello," who, notwithstanding he found all right, took with him the mate and all the papers. The "Monticello" being lost sight of, the steamer "Alabama" neared her on the 5th, and notwithstanding Captain Vieret stated what had occurred with the "Monticello," the "Providencia" was towed down opposite to Charleston, where, by order of the commander of the blockading squadron, the crew was disembarked and replaced with North American seamen, and the "Providencia" was sent to Hampton Roads as prize, and thence to New York, where she arrived on the 24th of November.

The illegal proceeding of the North American officers being ascertained, the vessel was delivered to her Majesty's consul at New York, with seven seamen, the rest having then arrived, but Captain Vieret has presented a statement of the damages suffered by the rigging and sails of the vessel, and for losses occasioned him, which already amounts to $3,105.

In view of all the documents which have effect at this legation of her Majesty, and convinced of the integrity and moderation of Captain Vieret, the undersigned has no doubt that the government of the United States will hasten to make good the sum which he claims, and will disapprove the conduct of whosoever may have been the cause of such unjust vexation.

If the government of the United States should desire to make an estimate of the damages, and remedy them by its own account, it can appoint a commissioner from the navy yard at New York, or any other expert, who may go on board for the purpose.

The undersigned avails of this occasion to reiterate to the honorable Secretary of State the assurance of his highest consideration.

GABRIEL G. TASSARA.

Hon. WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State of the United States.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, December 18, 1861.

SIR: I have had the honor to receive your letter of the 16th instant, submitting for my consideration, and for such proceedings in the matter as I may deem necessary, the translation of a note addressed to you by Mr. Tassara, the minister of Spain, relative to the seizure of the Spanish schooner "Providencia," on her voyage from Havana to New York.

The case is somewhat different from what is represented in the note of Mr. Tassara; a storm having arisen by which the mate, with the papers, who was on board the United States steamer Monticello, was separated from his vessel, and hence the subsequent troubles.

As the appeal is only for damages claimed to have been sustained by the "Providencia," it may be well to appoint some person, as suggested by Mr. Tassara, to make an estimate of the damages. If agreeable to Mr. Tassara, the department proposes to appoint Moses Taylor, esq., of New York, for the purpose.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

GIDEON WELLES.

Hon. WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

LEGATION OF SPAIN AT WASHINGTON,

Washington, December 20, 1861.

The undersigned, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of her Catholic Majesty, has had the honor to receive the note of yesterday's date, the 19th, of the honorable Secretary of State, with the communication from the honorable Secretary of the Navy, in regard to the affair of the "Providencia." In the note of the 14th from this legation, the circumstance was indeed omitted of the "Monticello" having been separated from the "Providencia" by a storm, and of its being thus impossible to return to her her papers; but this omission, as the honorable Secretary of State knows, in nowise alters the nature of the case. The undersigned agrees to the selection of Moses Taylor, esq., of New York, to estimate the damages suffered by the vessel, and, with the object of throwing still further light on the reclamation, he encloses the paper presented by Captain Don Juan Vieret at the consulate of Spain at that port.

The undersigned avails himself of this opportunity to reiterate to the honorable Secretary of State the assurance of his highest consideration.

GABRIEL G. TASSARA.

Hon. WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State of the United States.

[Translation.]

NEW YORK, December 3, 1861.

Don Juan Vieret, captain of the Spanish merchant corvette the "Providencia," having received again the command of his vessel on the date of the 27th ultimo, with due respect states to your honor that during her voyage from opposite Charleston to this port, in which his vessel was supplied with a crew of officers and seamen of the navy of this republic, she suffered a part of her injuries and detentions principally from the former point to Hampton Roads, losing for the want of a crew and a little care of her sails a portion of them, which have been valued by a master ship-chandler of this city at..... $940

A greater part of ropes broken and cut, with tackle, and the bell of the said vessel, which they broke..... 165

The detention and damages which he has calculated, at the least, at.... 2,000

Total 3,105

Therefore he expects from the justice of your honor that you will be pleased to demand, through the most appropriate channel, the reimbursement of the three thousand one hundred and five hard dollars, set down on the back page.

God preserve your honor many years.

JUAN VIERET.

Mr. CONSUL of her Catholic Majesty at New York.

A true copy.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, January 14, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to submit herewith a copy of the award of Moses Taylor, esq., communicated to this department on the 11th instant, in the case of the Spanish bark Providencia.

I am, respectfully, your obedient servant,

GIDEON WELLES.

Hon. WM. H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

In the case of the Spanish bark Providencia, submitted to me as referee by the Secretary of the Navy of the United States, on the one part, and by his excellency Señor Don Gabriel G. Tassara, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of her Catholic Majesty, on the other part :

From the documentary evidence and protest submitted to me in this case; from the examination of the log-book of the Providencia; from the evidence produced by Captain Juan Vieret, her master, assisted by the vice-consul of Spain at this port; and from the survey held upon the vessel, her sails, hull, tackle, and apparel, by experts appointed by me for that purpose, I award that compensation be made by the United States to the bark Providencia, her owners, master, or assignees, for damages and detention, as follows, viz :

For cost of new sails	$706 00
Less deduction for old sails	33 00
		$673 00
For braces and running rigging.....		120 00
For blocks.....		15 00
For bell.....		21 00
For damage to hull and standing rigging.....		355 08
For expense of discharging ballast in absence of crew		39 60
For wages of master, officers, and crew, and board of mates.....		278 23
For detention of vessel 20 days, at $50 per day		1,000 00
		2,501 91

Twenty-five hundred and one dollars and ninety-one cents, liquidated damages.

MOSES TAYLOR, Referee.

NEW YORK, January 11, 1862.

Captain Vieret, representing the Spanish bark Providencia, her owners, officers and crew, having presented to the referee, through the vice-consul of Spain, a further claim for the remuneration considered equitable by himself, his officers and crew, in full satisfaction of damages, and inconveniences arising from the detention and removal, and the consequence thereof, I am of opinion, and I recommend, that the same be allowed in addition to the award of $2,501 91, as an act of courtesy on the part of the United States, and as in full and final settlement of all claims and damages arising from the detention of said bark Providencia, her officers and crew, viz :

To the master, the sum of.....	$100
To the mate.....	40
To the cook and marines, 15, at $10 each	150
	290

MOSES TAYLOR, Referee.

NEW YORK, January 11, 1862.

DISBURSEMENTS—CONTINGENT FUND OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF STATE,

TRANSMITTING

Statement of disbursements of contingent fund, balances of appropriations on hand, and a precise and analytical statement of all moneys disbursed by the State Department.

JANUARY 29, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,

Washington, January 24, 1862.

SIR: The Secretary of State, in obedience to the 20th section of the act entitled "An act legalizing and making appropriations for such necessary objects as have usually been included in the general appropriation bills without authority of law, and to fix and provide for certain incidental expenses of the departments and offices of the government, and for other purposes," approved August 26, 1842, and the act making appropriations for the civil and diplomatic expenses of the government for the year 1836, (section 2,) has the honor to submit to Congress the accompanying statements, A, B, C, D, E, and F.

That marked A shows the manner in which the fund for the contingent expenses of the Department of State has been expended, so far as the disbursements have been made by the disbursing clerk of the department, during the fiscal year ending on the 30th of June, 1861.

B.—A statement of the balances of same appropriations remaining in the treasury on the 30th June, 1861, and in the hands of the disbursing clerk.

C.—A precise and analytical statement of all moneys disbursed by the disbursing clerk of this department during the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1861.

D.—A statement of disbursements from the fund for the contingent expenses of foreign intercourse for the year ending on the 30th of November, 1861.

E.—A statement of the contingent expenses of all the missions abroad during the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1861, as stated by the Fifth Auditor.

F.—A statement of the contingent expenses of the Department of State during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1861, as stated by the Fifth Auditor.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

Hon. G. A. GROW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF STATE,

IN RELATION TO

Clerks and other persons employed in the Department of State.

JANUARY 29, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, January 25, 1862.

SIR: The Secretary of State, in obedience to the act to regulate and fix the compensation of clerks in the different offices, approved April 20, 1818, and to the 11th section of "An act legalizing and making appropriations for such necessary objects as have usually been included in the general appropriation bills, without authority of law, and to fix and provide for certain incidental expenses of the departments and offices, and for other purposes," approved August 26, 1852, respectfully reports the accompanying statements, (A, B, and C,) containing, in addition to the information required by those acts, that called for by a resolution of the House of Representatives of January 13, 1846.

The services of the clerks permanently employed under existing laws could not be dispensed with without injury to the public interests.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

Hon. G. A. GROW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ESTIMATES FOR THE SERVICE OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

LETTER

FROM

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL,

TRANSMITTING

Estimates for the service of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1863.

JANUARY 29, 1862 — Referred to the Committee of Ways and Means, and ordered to be printed.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
January 27, 1862.

SIR: In obedience to the second section of the "act to change the organization of the Post Office Department, approved July 2, 1836," I have the honor to submit specific estimates of the sums of money expected to be required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1863, viz:

EXPENDITURES.

For transportation of the mails inland	$6, 961, 000
For compensation of postmasters	2, 234, 000
For clerks of post offices	846, 000
For ship, steamboat, and way letters	12, 000
For office furniture for post offices	2, 000
For advertising	36, 000
For mail bags	75, 000
For paper for blanks	50, 000
For printing blanks	12, 000
For wrapping paper	45, 000
For mail locks, keys, and stamps	56, 000
For mail depredations and special agents	75, 000
For miscellaneous payments	187, 000
For postage stamps and stamped envelopes	90, 000
For payments of balances due to foreign countries	230, 000
For payments of letter carriers	152, 000
	11, 063, 000

To the above estimate must be added the cost of transportation of "foreign mails," which was formerly paid out of the appropriation of the fifth section of the act approved June 14, 1858, but which the Secretary of the Treasury, on the 6th August, 1861, decided not to be payable therefrom, since the passage of the act of 15th June, 1860.

Estimate for the transportation of foreign mails for 1863.

Between New York, Southampton, and other European ports	$285, 000
Between New York, Queenstown, and Liverpool	50, 000
Between Portland and Liverpool, and Quebec and Liverpool	80, 000
Between United States, Havana, Cuba, and other West India ports.	50, 000
	11, 528, 000

The estimate for the transportation of the mails inland does not include the sum of $1,000,000, which it was presumed that Congress intended to appropriate from the treasury by the 9th section of the act of March 2, 1861, for a daily mail on the central route; but by a decision of the First Comptroller of the Treasury, dated October 31, 1861, it is declared that this sum was not thus appropriated. Unless, therefore, a specific appropriation for this object be made by Congress, the above estimate will be subject to a further addition of

1, 000, 000

Total		12, 528, 000

I have the honor also to state that an appropriation of $20,000 is now required to pay the compensation of twenty-five additional clerks, which the Postmaster General is authorized to employ by the second section of the act entitled "An act to promote the efficiency of the dead letter office," which was approved January 21, 1862.

Very respectfully,

M. BLAIR,
Postmaster General.

Hon. G. A. GROW,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CLERKS AND OTHER PERSONS EMPLOYED IN THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

APPROPRIATIONS IN AID OF AGRICULTURE.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR,

IN ANSWER TO

A resolution of the House of the 20th instant, in relation to appropriations in aid of agriculture.

JANUARY 30, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
January 28, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to present herewith a communication of the Commissioner of Patents, giving the information requested of this department by a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 20th instant.

The appropriations heretofore made by Congress in aid of agriculture having been placed by law under the direction of the Commissioner of Patents, this department has not considered itself authorized to control the discretion thus confided to that officer.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

CALEB B. SMITH,
Secretary.

Hon. G. A. GROW,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE,
January 28, 1862.

SIR: The resolution of the House of Representatives of the 20th instant, introduced by the Hon. C. Calvert, of Maryland, has been received, and with pleasure I submit the following, in reply to the inquiries therein made:

The resolution is as follows:

“Resolved, That the Secretary of the Interior be directed to inform this House, at the earliest possible day—

“First. How much of the appropriation made last year for the Agricultural Bureau of the Patent Office has been expended, specifying each item of such expenditure.

"Second. Whether an agent has been appointed to go to Europe; and if so, the object of his visit; stating how much has been paid to said agent for salary and expenses, and what further sum is to be paid him, and what services he has or is expected to render.

"Third. Whether any contracts have been made in anticipation of the appropriation; and if so, for what purpose, and for what amount."

In reply to the first division of the resolution, I have the honor of submitting the following statement, marked "A."

To the second branch of the resolution, I take pleasure in stating that about the 1st of May, 1861, D. Jay Browne, esq., of New York, but for some years connected with this office in an important position, was appointed to visit Europe, upon recommendation of several distinguished senators and a large number of the most respectable citizens of the country.

Mr. Browne was instructed specially to examine into and report upon the manufacture of wines, with a view of promoting and fostering that important and growing interest in this country; also in relation to the adulterations of wines.

He was also instructed to investigate and report upon the cultivation and manufacture of flax in the north of Europe; also to examine the growing wheat crops, about harvest time, in the north of Europe, with a view of purchasing seed, if deemed proper by the office. No orders have been sent to Mr. Browne for the purchase of seeds.

Mr. Browne was to receive three thousand dollars, in full of all compensation for salary, expenses, &c. His appointment was for one year only, and he has been paid for that time. No further sum is to be paid to him.

His report is daily expected to arrive, and it is but just to say that it is expected to be the most valuable report ever made upon the subjects assigned to him for investigation.

It is not necessary to enlarge upon the importance of the wine interest. It is attracting universal attention in all parts of our country, from the immense amount of money which is sent from this country to foreign lands for the various kinds of wines, which it is believed can be as successfully and as economically produced in this as in any other country. The only difficulty now and heretofore has been in the want of knowledge in its manufacture. When the wine-makers of this country, or their private agents, have visited the wine manufacturers of Europe, they have naturally been excluded from their establishments from a fear of competition; but I am assured, from sources entitled to full credit, that Mr. Browne, as a government agent, has secured facilities which but few, if any, Americans have before enjoyed, in observing all the manipulations in the manufacture of wine.

Nor is it necessary that I should, except in the most brief terms, refer to the importance of the cultivation and manufacture of flax. There is no portion of the world better adapted to the production of flax than the United States. Soil, climate, extent of territory, all combine to establish the truth of the above statement; and yet we are at this time dependent upon foreign countries for nearly all our linen goods, and are importing linseed largely from India.

Capitalists in this country have been experimenting in the preparation of machinery for manufacturing flax at an expense of millions of dollars; and the most intelligent company in the country, who have devoted their time, intelligence, and great wealth to this enterprize, are now languishing for the want of means to carry on their enterprize, from the fear of a failure in securing the object.

The anticipated report will doubtless solve the great problem which has not yet been solved in this country—how to manufacture by machinery cloth from flax as economically as is now done from cotton. Believing this, I am confident that the small sum expended in sending an intelligent agent to Europe for the purpose above indicated will be a judicious expenditure.

In reply to the third division of the resolution, I have the honor to state that in carrying out the contracts made last year the appropriation was overdrawn about $10,000, leaving for the current year only about $50,000, which I have endeavored to expend most economically; and the expenditures of the present year will be confined to the appropriation.

I subjoin a statement of the expenditures in the aggregate from the 1st of July until the 31st of December, 1861.

Yours truly,

D. P. HOLLOWAY,
Commissioner of Patents.

Hon. C. B. SMITH,
Secretary of the Interior.

A.

FLOATING DEBT.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

IN ANSWER TO

Resolution of the House of the 8th instant, in relation to the floating debt of the United States.

JANUARY 31, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, January 29, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the following resolution adopted by the House of Representatives on the 8th instant:

"Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to report, at an early day, to the House the sum total of the present floating debt of the United States, as nearly as the same can be ascertained or estimated; giving, also, as far as practicable, the several heads, as to departments or subject matter, under which said debt may be ranged."

I transmitted, without delay, copies of this resolution to the heads of the other executive departments, and requested them to furnish me with such statements as would enable me to furnish the information desired.

As soon as the necessary information shall be received, the result will be transmitted to the House.

With great respect, your obedient servant,

S. P. CHASE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. G. A. GROW,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

BRITISH STEAMER TRENT.

MESSAGE

FROM THE

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

TRANSMITTING

Correspondence between the governments of the United States and Great Britain in relation to the British mail steamer Trent.

JANUARY 31, 1862.—Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and ordered to be printed.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

As a sequel to the correspondence on the subject previously communicated, I transmit to Congress extracts from a despatch of the 20th ultimo, from Mr. Adams, United States minister at London, to the Secretary of State, and a copy of an instruction from Earl Russell to Lord Lyons of the 10th instant, relative to the removal of certain citizens of the United States from the British mail steamer Trent by order of the commander of the United States war steamer San Jacinto.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, January 31, 1862.

Mr. Adams to Mr. Seward.

[Extracts.]

No. 93.]

LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES,

London, December 20, 1861.

SIR: Although nothing remains to be done here to modify the respective positions of the two countries in regard to the affair of the Trent, I decided to ask a conference of Lord Russell. * * * * *

I then remarked that my despatches enabled me now to assure him that the act of Captain Wilkes had not been authorized by the government; and further, that they would reserve themselves perfectly free to act upon it until they should hear from this side of the water. If her Majesty's ministers were disposed to enter upon the subject with a view to an amicable adjustment, they would be met in an equally friendly spirit. His lordship expressed his gratification on receiving this information. He had himself little doubt in regard to the first point ever since learning from me the nature of the instructions given to the commander of the James Adger. The other point was likewise important, inasmuch as it removed the danger of committal prior to the moment when the views of the government should be presented on the part of Great Britain.

I then proposed, as a means of fully bringing to his lordship's knowledge the real spirit of the government of the United States, that he should let me read to him a despatch exactly as I had received it. A judgment might be fully formed of it in this way, inasmuch as the paper had recapitulated the various grounds of misunderstanding and complaint. His lordship said he should be glad to hear it; so I read all the despatch No. 136 (30th November, 1861) but the first paragraph, personal to myself. * * * *

I have the honor, &c.,

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS.

Hon. WM. H. SEWARD,

Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.

Earl Russell to Lord Lyons.

FOREIGN OFFICE, January 10, 1862.

MY LORD: In my despatch to you of the 30th of November, after informing you of the circumstances which had occurred in relation to the capture of the four persons taken from on board the Trent, I stated to you that it thus appeared that certain individuals had been forcibly taken from on board a British vessel, the ship of a neutral power, while such vessel was pursuing a lawful and innocent voyage; an act of violence which was an affront to the British flag, and a violation of international law. I concluded by directing you, in case the reparation which her Majesty's government expected to receive should not be offered by Mr. Seward, to propose to that minister to make such redress as alone would satisfy the British nation, namely: first, the liberation of the four gentlemen taken from on board the Trent, and their delivery to your lordship, in order that they might again be placed under British protection; and, secondly, a suitable apology for the aggression which had been committed.

I received yesterday your lordship's despatch of the 27th ultimo, enclosing a note to you from Mr. Seward, which is in substance the answer to my despatch of the 30th of November.

Proceeding at once to the main points in discussion between us, her Majesty's government have carefully examined how far Mr. Seward's note, and the conduct it announces, comply substantially with the two proposals I have recited.

With regard to the first, viz: the liberation of the prisoners with a view to their being again placed under British protection, I find that the note concludes by stating that the prisoners will be cheerfully liberated, and by calling upon your lordship to indicate a time and place for receiving them. No condition of any kind is coupled with the liberation of the prisoners.

With regard to the suitable apology which the British government had a right to expect, I find that the government of the United States distinctly and unequivocally declares that no directions had been given to Captain Wilkes, or to any other naval officer, to arrest the four persons named or any of them, on the Trent, or on any other British vessel, or on any other neutral vessel, at the place where it occurred or elsewhere.

I find further that the Secretary of State expressly forbears to justify the particular act of which her Majesty's government complained. If the United States government had alleged that, although Captain Wilkes had no previous instructions for that purpose, he was right in capturing the persons of the four prisoners, and in removing them from the Trent on board his own vessel, to be afterwards carried into a port of the United States, the government which had thus sanctioned the proceeding of Captain Wilkes would have become responsible for the original violence and insult of the act. But Mr. Seward contents himself with stating that what has happened has been simply an inadvertency, consisting in a departure by a naval officer, free from any wrongful motive, from a rule uncertainly established, and probably by the several parties concerned either imperfectly understood or entirely unknown. The Secretary of State goes on to affirm that for this error the British government has a right to expect the same reparation which the United States as an independent state should expect from Great Britain or from any other friendly nation in a similar case.

Her Majesty's government having carefully taken into their consideration the liberation of the prisoners, the delivery of them into your hands, and the explanations to which I have just referred, have arrived at the conclusion that they constitute the reparation which her Majesty and the British nation has a right to expect.

It gives her Majesty's government great satisfaction to be enabled to arrive at a conclusion favorable to the maintenance of the most friendly relations between the two nations. I need not discuss the modifications in my statement of facts which Mr. Seward says he has derived from the reports of officers of his government. I cannot conclude, however, without adverting shortly to the discussions which Mr. Seward has raised upon points not prominently brought into question in my despatch of the 30th of November. I there objected, on the part of her Majesty's government, to that which Captain Wilkes had done. Mr. Seward, in his answer, points out what he conceives Captain Wilkes might have done without violating the law of nations.

It is not necessary that I should here discuss in detail the five questions ably argued by the Secretary of State. But it is necessary that I should say that her Majesty's government differ from Mr. Seward in some of the conclusions at which he has arrived; and it may lead to a better understanding between the two nations on several points of international law which may, during the present contest, or at some future time be brought into question, that I should state to you, for communication to the Secretary of State, wherein those differences consist. I hope to do so in a few days.

In the meantime, it will be desirable that the commanders of the United States cruisers should be instructed not to repeat acts for which the British government will have to ask for redress, and which the United States government cannot undertake to justify.

You will read and give a copy of this despatch to the Secretary of State.

I am, &c.,

RUSSELL.

Lord LYONS, &c., &c., &c.

OFFICERS IN NEW REGIMENTS OF REGULAR ARMY.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF WAR,

IN ANSWER TO

Resolution of the House of Representatives of January 8, transmitting Army Register, with the information required.

FEBRUARY 4, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, January 27, 1862.

SIR: In compliance with a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 8th instant, requesting to be furnished with a report of the names of all commissioned officers appointed in the new regiments of the regular army, showing the respective States from which they have been appointed, I have the honor to transmit herewith an official copy of the Army Register for the present year, which gives the information desired by the House.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

Hon. G. A. GROW,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ARMS FOR VOLUNTEER REGIMENTS FROM NEW YORK.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF WAR,

IN ANSWER TO

Resolution of the House of January 2, in relation to arming certain volunteer regiments from New York.

FEBRUARY 4, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, January 27, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 2d instant, asking information as to why certain volunteer regiments from the State of New York, now encamped near this city, are not provided with arms, &c., and to state, in reply, that a portion of the 89th New York volunteers, to which it is believed the resolution has reference, was for a time without arms, for the reason that there were no arms in the arsenal which they were willing to receive. Since then a supply of Austrian rifles has been received, and the regiment armed with them.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

Hon. G. A. GROW,
Speaker House of Representatives

SALINE LANDS IN NEBRASKA.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR,

IN RELATION TO

Saline lands in the Territory of Nebraska.

FEBRUARY 4, 1862.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, February 3, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to communicate herewith a report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, in relation to saline lands in the Territory of Nebraska, in answer to a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 20th ultimo.

With great respect, your obedient servant,

CALEB B. SMITH,
Secretary of the Interior.

Hon. GALUSHA A. GROW,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE, January 28, 1862.

SIR: With your communication of the 22d instant, I have had the honor to receive the resolution of the House of Representatives adopted January 20, 1862, desiring the Secretary of the Interior to communicate to the "House the condition of the saline lands in the Territory of Nebraska, with such recommendations concerning the same as may, in his judgment, be promotive of the public interest."

Pursuant to said resolution, and in accordance with your instructions accompanying the same, I have the honor to report:

1. That eleven tracts, all situated in township 10 north, of range 6 east, in Nebraska, have been represented to the department as saline lands; the information not having been received through local land administrative channels, yet from a reliable source.

2. The schedule (A) herewith describes the tracts; shows by whom located; that no patents had been issued for two of them; that patents in six other cases have been recalled and returned to this office, where they are on file; and that the remaining three patents had been delivered from the district land office before information of the character of said tracts had reached the department.

3. By the act of Congress approved May 18, 1796, United States Statutes, volume 1, page 464, "providing for the sale of the lands of the United States in the territory northwest of the river Ohio, and above the mouth of Kentucky river," authority is given for the appointment of a surveyor general, "whose duty it shall be to engage a sufficient number of skilful surveyors as his deputies."

The second section of that act requires that "every surveyor shall note in his field-book the true situations of all mines, salt licks, salt springs, and mill seats, which shall come to his knowledge," &c.; and that "these field-books shall be returned to the surveyor general, who shall therefrom cause a description of the whole lands surveyed to be made out and transmitted to the officers who may superintend the sales."

The "duties, powers, obligations, and responsibilities," required of the surveyor general of Ohio are devolved upon the surveyor general of Kansas-Nebraska, in virtue of the tenth section of the act of Congress approved July 22, 1854, Statutes, volume 10, page 310, and of the act of June 12, 1838, volume 5, page 243.

Further: by the 4th section of the said act of July 22, 1854, creating the office of surveyor general of Kansas-Nebraska, and also that of New Mexico, and for other purposes, it is declared, "That none of the provisions of this act shall extend to mineral or school lands, salines," &c.

In the foregoing it is shown to be the duty of the deputy surveyor of Kansas-Nebraska to "note in his field-book the true situations" of all "salt licks, salt springs," &c.; and in virtue of the said act of 1854, no sale or other disposal of the same can lawfully be made unless Congress shall otherwise order.

Upon reference to the field-notes in this office, connected with the township aforesaid, notes of the deputy surveyor are found to the following effect, viz:

General description.—"The water in all the creeks extremely salty. I discovered valuable salt springs along the bed of creek, and in sections 22, 23, and in 34 and 27. A small operation for boiling is carried on by a company in section 22. The specimens of salt were very fine." Then again, in regard to line between sections 22 and 23, it is stated, "Surface mostly low, wet, and barren, with a great many saline springs;" and as to the line between sections 21 and 22: "Surface mostly low, barren flats, unfit for cultivation, with a great many fine salt springs."

The survey of the township in which the tracts are situated, which are designated in the accompanying schedule, was executed in October, 1857.

In connexion with the call in the resolution for such recommendations concerning the salines in question as may be "promotive of the public interest," the Secretary advises me he is informed by the delegate that there is "good reason to believe that large quantities of valuable saline lands have been reported as ordinary lands by a fraudulent collusion between surveyors and speculators;" the appointment in this connexion being suggested of a "special commissioner to make examination of the lands in order to ascertain whether such frauds have been practiced."

The Secretary desiring my views on this question, I have the honor to recommend that the surveyor general of Kansas-Nebraska be directed to take up all the field-notes of the surveys in Nebraska, and make out from the same diagrams exhibiting all "saline tracts," by legal subdivisions, and furnish copies of such to this and the local office, where they are to stand specifically withdrawn from sale or disposal by force of existing laws; that in the cases in question the surveyor general shall be directed to order a sworn deputy on the spot, with notice to the parties claiming according to schedule, that the lands are represented to the department as saline, and that, at a time to be designated, the said deputy shall examine personally the premises, and report the result to the surveyor general, with any showing the parties claiming may present to said deputy; and thereupon, and after affording an opportunity to all concerned to be heard, it shall be the duty of such surveyor general to designate on the official township plats all legal subdivisions, including salt springs, salt licks, or saline tracts, as lands required to be reserved under existing laws, and who shall furnish transcripts of such official saline designations to this and the district land offices, to the end that such tracts may be respected accordingly, any location or sale interfering therewith to be reported by said register and receiver for cancellation; and should it be found that the three locations for which patents have been delivered, or either of them, are salines, and the patents should not be surrendered upon a formal demand for the same, steps be recommended on the law side of the government to have said patents set aside and annulled by scire facias.

With great respect, your obedient servant,

J. M. EDMUNDS, Commissioner.

Hon. C. B. SMITH,

Secretary of the Interior.

SCHEDULE A.

Abstract of certain locations in township 10 north, range 6 east, on lands claimed to be saline.

NEBRASKA CITY, District of Nebraska.

The two following locations not patented: north half northwest quarter, and northwest half northeast quarter section 21, located by George H. Hilton, August 19, 1861, with warrant No. 92871—act 1855; south half northwest quarter section 14, and southeast quarter northeast quarter section 15, located by George H. Hilton, August 19, 1861, with warrant 51019—act 1855.

The patents on the six following cases are withheld: northwest quarter northwest quarter section 22, and northeast quarter northeast quarter section 21, patented to Parker L. Wise and Jonathan N. Wise, August 1, 1860, on warrant 31082—act 1855; east half southwest quarter section 14, patented to Parker L. Wise and Jonathan N. Wise, August 1, 1860, on warrant 48636—act 1855; north half northwest quarter section 23, patented to William G. Woodfin, August 1, 1860, on warrant 39882—act 1855; north half southeast quarter section 21, and northwest quarter southwest quarter, and southwest quarter northwest quarter section 22, patented to John W. Prey, August 3, 1860, on warrant 80268—act 1847; south half northeast quarter, southeast quarter northwest quarter, and northeast quarter southwest quarter section 21, patented to John W. Prey, June 1, 1860, on warrant 10027—act 1850; west half southwest quarter section 14, and east half southeast quarter section 15, patented to William L. Prey, August 1, 1860, on warrant 64679—act 1855.

The register reports, by letter dated December 20, 1861, that the patents on the three following cases have been delivered: northwest quarter section 27, patented to Emerson H. Eaton, August 1, 1860, on warrant 81773—act 1855; east half southeast quarter, northwest quarter southeast quarter, and northeast quarter southwest quarter section 27, patented to Emerson H. Eaton, August 1, 1860, on warrant 68851—act 1855; southeast quarter southeast quarter section 28, south half southwest quarter, and southwest quarter southeast quarter section 27, patented to John W. Seymour, August 1, 1860, on warrant 84195—act 1855.

TRANSPORTATION OF TROOPS, &c.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF WAR,

IN ANSWER TO

Resolution of the House of January 8, 1861, relative to payments made for transportation of troops, &c.

FEBRUARY 12, 1862.—Referred to the select committee on government contracts, and ordered to be printed.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

Washington City, D. C., February 11, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the quartermaster general, enclosing all bills for transportation by railroad acted upon since April 1, 1861, which is submitted in reply to a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 8th ultimo, in relation to payments made for the transportation of troops and munitions of war over any railroad which has been constructed in whole or in part by lands granted by the government, &c., which is all the information this department can furnish, owing to the frequent inability of the quartermaster general to obtain the necessary data to enable him to comply strictly with the resolution.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

EDWIN M. STANTON,

Secretary of War.

Hon. G. A. GROW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington City, February 3, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to enclose a statement of all bills for transportation by railroad acted upon in this office since April 1, 1861. It is submitted in reply to House resolution of January 8, 1862, as follows:

"Resolved, That the Secretary of War be directed to report to the House what payments have been made, if any, for the transportation of troops and munitions of war over any railroad which has been constructed in whole or in part by lands granted by the government on the condition that such railroad should be and remain a public highway for the use of the government of the United States, free from toll or other charge upon the transportation of any property or troops of the United States," and whether it is the purpose of his department to pay for the transportation of troops and munitions of war of the government over any such railroad constructed by a company which had received public lands on the above condition.

I am unable to comply strictly with the terms of the call, inasmuch as I have failed to obtain a list of railroads constructed within the terms of the resolution.

The Attorney General informs me that there is no such list on record in his department, and the report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office for 1860, to which I was referred, gives only a list of States to which grants of land have been made, and not of railroads constructed in whole or in part by lands granted to the States for such purposes.

There are other bills on file in this office not yet examined and settled, and many payments, and to large amounts, are made by officers of the department for railroad service without reference to this office before payment.

The vouchers for such expenditures are forwarded by the officers, under the regulations, at the end of each quarter of the fiscal year for examination in this office, and for audit by the accounting bureaus of the Treasury Department.

When the question of the rights of the government, and the duties of the Illinois Central railroad, was brought to the attention of this office, an examination of the grant led me to the conclusion that the government was entitled to the use of the road free of toll or cost, but not to the use of the cars and engines of the company. By advice of the Assistant Secretary of War, the conclusion was reached that this road should transport troops and munitions of war at a rate one-third less than other roads not having received land grants; one-third the gross receipts being supposed to be that part of the cost of transportation which would be properly chargeable for maintenance, repairs, and other charges of the road.

The case appeared to me to be similar to that of a canal or turnpike which should remain free of toll, while the owners would not be obliged to furnish boats and horses for towage in the canals, or horses and vehicles upon the turnpike for transportation of supplies.

Upon some of the western railroads, since the commencement of hostilities, almost the entire business has been the transportation of government supplies; and if a rule different from that above reached prevails, the companies will have no revenue with which to carry on their operations. Upon some the burning of bridges and destruction of tracks has made government aid indispensable to the continuance of transportation, upon which important military movements entirely depended. The resolution is herewith returned.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

M. C. MEIGS,
Quartermaster General.

Hon. E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

TREATY FOR THE ABOLITION OF STADE DUES TO THE KINGDOM OF HANOVER.

MESSAGE

FROM THE

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

TRANSMITTING

Copy of a special treaty between the King of Hanover and the United States for the abolition of the Stade dues.

FEBRUARY 14, 1862.—Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and ordered to be printed.

To the Senate and House of Representatives :

I transmit to Congress a copy of a special treaty between the United States and his Majesty the King of Hanover for the abolition of the Stade dues, which was signed at Berlin on the 6th of November last. In this treaty, already approved by the Senate and ratified on the part of the United States, it is stipulated that the sums specified in Articles III and IV to be paid to the Hanoverian government shall be paid at Berlin on the day of the exchange of the ratifications. I therefore recommend that seasonable provision be made to enable the Executive to carry this stipulation into effect.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, February 12, 1862.

SPECIAL TREATY BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF HANOVER, CONCERNING THE ABOLITION OF THE STADE OR BRUNSHAUSEN DUES, SIGNED AT BERLIN NOVEMBER 6, 1861.

The United States of America and his Majesty the King of Hanover, equally animated by the desire to increase and facilitate the relations of commerce and navigation between the two countries, have resolved to conclude a special treaty, to the end to free the navigation of the Elbe from the tolls known under the designation of the Stade or Brunshausen dues, and for that purpose conferred full powers, the President of the United States of America upon Mr. Norman B. Judd, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States of America to Prussia, and his Majesty the King of Hanover upon his envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary at the royal Prussian court, the lieutenant colonel and extraordinary aide-de-camp Mr. August Wilhelm Von Reitzenstein, Knight Commander of the second class of the Royal Guelphic Order, &c., who, after having exchanged their full powers, and having found them to be in due and proper form, have concluded the following articles :

ARTICLE I. His Majesty the King of Hanover assumes towards the United States of America, who accept the same, the obligation—

1. To abolish completely and forever the toll hitherto levied on the cargoes of American vessels ascending the Elbe, and passing the mouth of the river called Schwinge, designated under the name of the Stade or Brunshausen dues.

2. To levy no toll of any kind, of whatever nature it may be, upon the hulls or cargoes of American vessels ascending or descending the Elbe, in place of those dues, the abolition of which is agreed upon in the preceding paragraph.

3. Not to subject hereafter, under any pretext whatever, American vessels ascending or descending the Elbe to any measure of control regarding the dues that are hereby abolished.

ARTICLE II. His Majesty the King of Hanover obligates himself moreover to the United States of America—

1. To provide as hitherto, and to the extent of the existing obligations, for the maintenance of the works that are necessary to the free navigation of the Elbe.

2. Not to impose, as a compensation for the expenses resulting from the execution of this obligation, upon the American marine any charge whatever, in lieu and place of the Stade or Brunshausen dues.

ARTICLE III. By way of damage and compensation for the sacrifices imposed upon his Majesty the King of Hanover by the above stipulations, the United States of America agree to pay to his Majesty the King of Hanover, who accepts the same, the sum of sixty thousand three hundred and fifty-three thalers, Hanoverian currency, this being the proportional quota part of the United States in the general table of indemnification for the abolition of the Stade or Brunshausen dues.

ARTICLE IV. The sum of sixty thousand three hundred and fifty-three thalers courant, stipulated in Article III, shall be paid at Berlin into the hands of such persons as shall have been authorized by his Majesty the King of Hanover to receive it, on the day of the exchange of ratifications, as hereinafter provided.

In consideration of the fact that the stipulations contained in Articles I and II have already been applied to the American flag since the first day of July, 1861, the United States of America agree to pay besides, and at the same time with the capital above named, the interest of that sum, at the rate of four per centum per annum, commencing with the first day of October, 1861.

ARTICLE V. The execution of the obligations contained in the present treaty is especially subordinated to the accomplishment of such formalities and rules as are established by the Constitutions of the high contracting powers ; and the compliance with these formalities and rules be brought about within the shortest delay possible.

ARTICLE VI. The treaty of commerce and navigation concluded between the United States of America and his Majesty the King of Hanover, on the tenth day of June, 1846, shall continue to remain in force, with the exception of the stipulation contained in paragraph 3, Article I, which shall cease to have effect after the present treaty shall have been ratified.

ARTICLE VII. This treaty shall be approved and ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at the city of Berlin within six months from the present date, or sooner, if possible.

In faith whereof, the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the above articles, both in the English and German languages, and they have thereunto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate at Berlin the sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and the independence of the United States of America the eighty-sixth.

PROTOCOL.

It remains understood that, until the execution of the stipulations contained in Articles V and VII of the treaty of to-day shall have taken place, the Hanoverian government shall preserve the right, provisionally, by way of precaution, to maintain the dues which it has agreed to abolish. But as soon as the United States of America shall have fulfilled the stipulations therein mentioned, the Hanoverian government shall order the discharge of that temporary measure of precaution, as regards merchandise transported in American vessels. Until, however, all the powers, parties to the general treaty of the 22d day of June, 1861, concerning the abolition of the Stade or Brunshausen dues, shall have fulfilled the engagements contained in the articles VI and VII of the last-named treaty, it shall have power to require of American vessels a proof of their nationality, without thereby causing them a delay or detention.

Done at Berlin the 6th November, 1861.
